

PART III.

---

APPENDICES.

	Page
I.—Report on Incidence of Influenza in the University and Borough of Cambridge and in the Friends' School, Saffron Waldon. By S. M. Copeman*, M.D., F.R.S. - - - Also Special Report by A. J. Laird, M.D., Medical Officer of Health.	388
II.—Report on an Inquiry into "the recent epidemic of Influenza in the County Borough of Leicester. By M. B. Arnold*, M.D.. - - -	445
III.—Analysis of the results of a Block Census undertaken in Manchester in December 1918. By T. Carnwath*, D.S.O., M.B. - - -	456
IV.—Report on the Epidemic of Influenza in Manchester, 1918-19. By James Niven, M.A., M.B., LL.D., Medical Officer of Health. . . . .	471
V.—Report on Influenza amongst the employees of two firms of chemical manufacturers, Messrs. the United Alkali Company of Widnes, and Messrs. the Castner Kellner Company of Runcorn, together with—for control purposes—certain figures relating to the incidence of the disease amongst Ironworkers. By J. R. Hutchinson*, M.D., and F. S. Carson, M.B. - - -	521
VI.—Report on an Investigation of Epidemic Influenza in the County Borough of South Shields, 1919. By D. Morley Mathieson, M.D., Medical Officer of Health - - -	529
VII.—Report on an Investigation of the incidence and effects of 'Influenza among the Population of Warrington (Lancs.). By G. W. N. Joseph, M.D., Medical Officer of Health - - -	539
VIII.—Analysis of an Influenza Census at Newcastle-on-Tyne. By S. Clegg, M.D., Assistant Medical Officer of Health - - -	556
IX.—Summary of results of an Inquiry at Wigan. By J. R. Hutchinson*, M.D.. . . . .	564
X.—Summary of results of an Inquiry at Blackburn, made under the supervision of J. R. Hutchinson*, M.D. The Investigation covered the Period of the three Epidemic Waves. . . . .	567
XI.—Extract from a Report on the incidence of Influenza on certain classes of Workers in the southern section of the Swansea Valley. By F. S. Carson, M.B. - - -	573
XII.—Note on the Periodicity of Influenza. By John Brownlee, M.D., D.Sc., Director of Statistics, Medical Research Committee - - -	575